GAMMA SIGMA ALPHA

2007 GRADUATE STUDY SCHOLARSHIPS

Joshua Vincent Justice

Josh Justice graduated from the University of Virginia's College at Wise with a Bachelor's in History and Government. Josh was a founding member of the Eta Pi chapter of Gamma Sigma Alpha, as well as a founding father of his fraternity, Alpha Sigma Phi. In his fraternity, he promoted the value of high scholarship, through his role as the chapter's Scholarship Chair and later Vice-President, as well as the "Scholar of the Year" for Alpha Sigma Phi. Josh was also heavily involved with Residence Life, serving as a Resident Advisor and then Resident Director. Josh will be pursuing a Master's in History at James Madison University.

Ankit K. Patel

Ankit Patel graduated from the University of Alabama at Birmingham with a Bachelor's in Biology. While pursuing his degree in Biology, he conducted various research, earning him a nomination for the Biology Department's Most Outstanding Student of the Year in 2006 and entry into the Phi Sigma Biology Honor Society. Within his own fraternity, Pi Kappa Phi, Ankit served as Associate Member Class Treasurer, and later Chapter Secretary. He also has served as the Treasurer for the Omicron Delta Kappa Leadership Honor Society and as Treasurer for the Order of Omega chapter on his campus. Ankit will be pursuing a Doctorate of Dental Medicine at the University of Alabama at Birmingham in the coming fall.
